Students and Parents:

This week marks the end of our abbreviated and quite different marching band season for 2020-21. We have some very important things happening this week. First, tomorrow (4/13) will be taking our formal pics for the season. These will be available for purchase and we will also get a full composite of the group for display in the school. I believe a mini version of that composite will be available to you as well. We will also have normal practice until 5:30pm, working around the taking of the pics. Finally, Thursday will be our last practice for the season as well as a special performance for parents and friends in our stadium at 5:30pm. Admission is free and we will observe all entry and distancing procedures through the main stadium gate just like at our home sporting events. If you are planning to attend, park in the lot and head to the stadium by 5:30pm.

Also, a reminder that we will have our April Band Booster meeting on Tuesday, April 20th at 6pm in the high school band room. Hope to see lots of parents there!

The staff and I would like to thank all of the students and parents that have worked to make this season a success. Plans are already underway for this fall and a detailed schedule will be available soon. I hope that all of our current marchers will be back with us this fall for a “normal” marching band experience at OG.
